- Applicants must have submitted an abstract to the annual meeting and are not required to be lead author on the abstract.

Scholarship Content

- Complimentary base registration to the annual meeting
- Three complimentary instructional courses
- Valuable networking opportunities
- Opportunity to learn from multi-disciplinary experts in the field of childhood-onset disabilities
- Reimbursement of transportation, lodging and meal expenses up to $1000 (maximum awarded)

Application Submission Process

Before completing the application, please read the instructions carefully. Do not skip any questions. Inquiries about this application may be addressed to the Academy office at info@aacpdm.org. AACPDM must receive the completed application on or before April 6, 2018. As part of the online application process, you will be required to upload the following documents. Please have them ready to upload before you begin your application.

- Brief letter of intent (1-2 paragraphs) explaining your need for a travel scholarship and how you would benefit from receiving one
- Letter of support from your Program Chief, Clinical Head or authorized official indicating that you are in a good standing with the program
- CV – no more than two pages
- Copy of your submitted abstract

Selection Criteria

- Preference will be given to scholarship applicants whose abstracts have been accepted.
- Applications received by April 6, 2018 will be checked for completeness. All complete applications will be forwarded to the Awards Committee for review.
- Applications will be reviewed, discussed and scored by all Awards Committee members, with a final decision made by the end of May.
- Letters notifying applicants of the Committee's final decisions will be sent directly from the Academy office by May 31, 2018.
