

AACPDM Mentorship Award

Submission deadline: March 31, 2022

AWARD INFORMATION AND SUBMISSION INSTRUCTIONS

About the Award

The Mentorship Award recognizes an individual who is an active member of the AACPDM and who has demonstrated outstanding leadership mentoring trainees and colleagues in the field of childhood-onset disabilities. Particular focus is placed on the contribution and impact of the mentoring to improve services/care, promote professional education and/or promote research for children with disabilities. The mentor must be a member of the American Academy of Cerebral Palsy and Developmental Medicine.

Initial nominations should include (complete form on page 2):

- Nominee's name, professional degree(s), institution(s), current position, academic rank and contact information
- Nominator's name, professional degree(s), institution(s), current position, academic rank and contact information
- Verification that the nominator has notified the nominee that they are being nominated
- Letter from the nominator (see guidelines for nomination letters)
- Nominee's CV

The winner will receive:

- Travel/hotel for 2 nights
- Basic Annual Meeting Registration (optional sessions are extra)

Nominations for the Mentorship Award are reviewed by the AACPDM Research Committee. Please email completed submissions to: info@aacpdm.org
