The American Academy for Cerebral Palsy and Developmental Medicine Welcomes New Secretary

The AACPDM Board of Directors is excited to announce its newest Secretary, Golda Milo-Manson, MHSc, MD, FRCPC.

Milwaukee, WI., September 26, 2022 – The American Academy for Cerebral Palsy and Developmental Medicine (AACPDM) is pleased to announce Golda Milo-Manson, as the 2022-2025 Secretary.

The mission of the AACPDM is:

Empowering and supporting a collaborative multidisciplinary community that

- provides accessible and robust scientific education for health professionals and researchers
- fosters innovative research as well as its dissemination and implementation
- advocates for equitable access to evidence based and patient centered care

Dr. Tom Novacheck, AACPDM President (2021-22) stated, “Dr. Milo-Manson’s contribution to AACPDM over the years proves she is passionate about her career and making positive changes. She will be an exceptional Secretary and the Board welcomes and thanks her for her service to the Academy.”

Dr. Golda Milo-Manson is an Associate Professor for the Department of Paediatrics at the University of Toronto and currently is the VP of Medicine and Academic Affairs at Holland Bloorview Children’s Rehabilitation Hospital a role she has held for 18 years. Dr. Milo-Manson has worked in paediatric rehabilitation for more than 20 years, largely with children and youth with physical disabilities as well as complex sleep disorders.
